

Cheyrl Ann Tabor

November 29, 1964 - April 1, 2024

Cheyrl Ann (Bickings) Tabor, age 59, of Trappe, Pennsylvania, passed away on Monday, April 1, 2024 in the Paoli Hospital. Born on November 29, 1964, in Norristown, she was the daughter of Cheyrl Ann (Parker) and Calvin J. Bickings.

Cheyrl had recently been employed for 10 years at her daughter's pet care business and absolutely loved and enjoyed taking care of the animals. All her clients loved her, and she was #1 at the top of their list.

She enjoyed British comedy and watching BBC, was an avid reader and loved Alice in Wonderland. Cheyrl was a free spirit, was passionate about attending live music concerts, embraced all feels from the music, loved art and particularly making memories.

Cheyrl loved time spent at the beach, took pleasure in a good funnel cake, riding the rollercoasters, grabbing a book, taking in the whole experience and rejoicing in the atmosphere. Most importantly, she just loved time spent with family and friends, especially her granddaughter.

In addition to her parents, Cheyrl is survived by her children: Robin Tabor and her partner, Albert Pilcher, Tara, wife of Johnny Qawasmy, and Michael Giunta; granddaughter: Nora Qawasmy; longtime partner: Mike Giunta; and brother: Edward husband of Pam Bickings.

A celebration of Cheyrl's life will be announced shortly. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Cheyrl's name to Ocean City Beach Cleanup - Maryland Coastal Bays Program, 8219 Stephen Decatur Highway, Berlin, Maryland 21811, <https://mdcoastalbays.org/ocean-city-beach-clean-up/ocean-city-beach-clean-up>.
