Christopher R. "Bobby" Collopy, age 73, formerly of Spring City, PA, passed away on Thursday, November 10, 2022 in the Aventura at Pembroke, West Chester. Born in Pottstown, he was the son of the late Rhea (Flemming) and Christopher Collopy, Jr.

Throughout the last several years of his life dealing with Neuromuscular Disease (CMT), Kidney failure, Manic Depression and many other physical disabilities, he never lost his faith in God!

Bobby is survived by his sister: Christine L. James Hector, and her husband, Joe, of East Pikeland; two uncles: Robert (Gracie) Collopy, of Alaska and John Flemming, of Florida; nephew: Joseph Burns, of East Coventry; niece: Pam (Jim) Gier, of Allentown; two great nieces, two great nephews; three great-great nieces and nephew; and good friend and brother in Christ: Tom Null, of Coatesville. “ Chris was a man with a heart after God. He was passionate about his walk with God and loved learning what the scriptures taught.

Chris was also involved in politics and wanted to make a change. You would often see him out and about with his Uncle Sam hat and his No Red Ink shirt. He was ready to talk with anyone that was willing to listen.

He was never shy and spoke up any chance he was given.

Though he did not have much he was more than generous with what he did have. His freely giving makes me think of the widow who gave only few cents but the few cents was all she had to live on (Mark 12:41-44).

While we are sad that Chris is no longer here on earth with us, we rejoice knowing that he is in Heaven. His body has been made new. Not only is Chris in the presence of our Heavenly Father but he is healed from all of his earthly ailments. This is not goodbye but only until we meet again Chris.

“ Bobby, known as Chris in Coatesville, PA, faithfully attended and supported city street ministries there to the poor and needy for many years, including 2022. He was bold in his faith and love both to God and his neighbors... beyond what is common. Despite multiple ongoing health challenges, he pressed on to passionately do whatever God put on his heart to accomplish. His fearless chasing after God's heart will be richly rewarded in his eternal home. We look forward to seeing him then.

Bobby, aka Chris to his friends in Coatesville, PA, was a faithful follower of Jesus and always expressed his love for Him. He praised and worshipped even when he was unable to physically stand to do so. We met Chris at Palmer Park in Coatesville where our home church was having our simple church on Sunday mornings. He was a faithful attender and then would walk to another church afterwards. I would see him at Coatesville Bible Fellowship on 4th Ave. in Coatesville as well. He loved Jesus and made his faith made known wherever he went. He ministered to the men and women in the park and in the city. We eventually started home church in our home a few years ago on Thursday evenings and Chris would show up with his huge smile and beautiful spirit. He would always come in saying, "Hello, family!" He warmed my heart with his stories and faith in the One Who Chris believed would heal his body...and we believed right along with him. Now, he is experoencing the reality of his healing. We will miss Chris and cannot wait to see him one day!

Chris, as known to me, was a man with many struggles, but never gave up. He knew that it was in God's plan for him to endure the bad times and enjoy the good times. .May he now be at his right hand in glory.
