“ *Dear Joan & Family,
I had the privilege of meeting my cousin Clark in 1997. He graciously made me feel at ease in your home as we discussed our family history. I have never forgotten, nor will I, how amazingly interesting he was. I am very, very sorry for your loss, may God give you comfort.*

“ Dear Joan and family,

We are both so sorry for your loss. Clark was a very fun loving man with many memories we will hold dear. We are so happy that we had the opportunity to know Clark and spend time with him at some of your family gatherings. Wayne holds great thoughts of playing cards, building the deck and hearing all the fun family stories he had to share. Although he is gone he will never be forgotten by the many people's lives he had touched. We know he was such a great Philly fan and can't help but feel they won the big game just for him.

Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayer during this sad time. Know that he is now an angel to watch over you all. I am sure there won't be a day that passes that his smile will light up the sky and bring back wonderful memories you all share.

*With our love and sympathy,
Wayne & Tammy Kurtz*

“ Dear Joan and family, I was so sorry to learn of Clark's passing. As you might recall, Clark and I taught together for several years at OJR middle school on "Team A" and shared some memorable times with the sixth graders and our other teammates. I will remember Clark for his dedication to school and REA, his love of sports, and how excited he was to retire and spend time with you and your grandchildren. I'm so glad to have seen him at the middle school celebration in June. I hope the memories of the wonderful life you had with Clark will give you peace in the days ahead. My deepest sympathy. Sincerely, Paula Strawoet
