“ Connie's house and our house was separated by a little access road when we lived on Whitehorse Road. She was unfailingly kind. I remember in school a foreign exchange student said she wanted a ucla shirt (she pronounced in youkla), and no one knew what she was talking about and Connie said, "youkla? youcla....? You mean, U-C-L-A? and the girl said, "Yes, Youcla!" Bonnie laughed and hugged her and said that they'd get her a Youcla shirt. But she made sure this girl sat with her at lunch, and generally made her feel important. And when Connie Moore liked you, you were important.

“ Connie was great! We both worshipped at St. John's, and, on school mornings, if she saw me walking up Gay Street, she said would pick me up in her muscle car. I felt special. I have never forgotten... ❤️

“ To Connie's family, I am sorry for your loss. I was just thinking about Connie the other day when I was at Acme. I was reminiscing about the happy times when she and I used to chat for a few minutes when I would shop there. I was introduced to Connie by her dear sweet mother, Marge, whom I had met at Christian Women's Club luncheons. I loved Marge too! I will miss both these lovely ladies. ❤️
