“ For the family and friends of Jay.

We have been residents of Washington street in royersford since 1972. Over these many years there have been some great conversations about spring ford athletics, Phillies, eagles and royersford. A passionate man was jay and always a gentleman. He was a fixture on Washington street, sitting on his porch, reading the paper, talking with neighbors. He was part of America's greatest generation. We, and all who knew him, will greatly miss him being amongst us.

May his soul rest in peace and may he and betty sit on that glorious porch in heaven.
