“ Dana and I did go to middle school together but we became very close when we worked together at John Middleton on the stands deck. We always had the best conversations. We would talk about everything but it was always fun to talk about the cute guys at Middleton, especially if we could spy on them from our birds nest post on the deck. You could see most of the rest of the factory from up there. We would tear up cigars boxes and write notes or draw pictures on the insides of them where it was blank. I hung some of her stick drawings inside my locker and they were there till the day I got fired. You knew her stick figure was hers because it had big boob's with stars. I always felt some type of way that I couldn't help her. She was a dear friend and I will miss her. Condolences to her parents, her brother Doug and Jarrett Jr. If he reads this one day he should know that he was everything to her.

“ A beautiful angel was born in Abington Hospital 28 years ago to Doug and Janet Hindle....I know, we were there. This gorgeous, healthy blonde baby, was perfect in every way. I am still in shock, having just heard this sad news last night. Dana was a beautiful baby, girl, woman. The last time I saw her was 4-5 years ago in Elmwood Zoo, where she was pushing her son in a stroller. She was such a proud Mommy. Doug, Janet, Dougie (sorry, that's what we called you back as kids!) and Dylan, and especially to little Jarret, I am so sorry for your incredible loss. Dana was an angel the day she was born, and an angel now.....just taken way too soon. Hopefully she has the peace she was looking for.....way too soon.....lulu

“ My dearest dana,
Such an amazing woman in many more ways than one. U n I worked together way back. The famous zerns. We had to make money somehow. I keep remembering when u locked ur self in matt's car blaring the music because u n him got frustrated with one another. Remember mom "diane" whom also took the both of us as her own to help us through our rough patches. I tried my best and so did you. We have alot in common. Like we were one another's dopplers. I'll think of you every second of the days that go bye. Ur another one of my shining stars I see now when I look into the sky at night. Rest in the most beautiful way baby girl. You deserve peace and serenity. Love you with all of my heart. ♡

“ From the very first time I laid eyes on you I knew you were one of a kind a special someone the world would cherish, a superstar. It's always the good ones the special ones that are taken way too young in the world of rock and roll they call it the 27 club. You were a rockstar Dana and your musical gift was that of joy. Your smile and laugh made others wanna do the same. You'll truly be missed and thank you for touching my life the way you did. Rest EZ
