“ Very touching video. Terry loved everyone and brought joy, life and laughter to us all. He truly was my favorite uncle. He would say that I was his favorite niece until I found out later that he said that to all his nieces! My dad was always proud of his younger brother. We will truly miss him. Our heartfelt sympathies go out to Phyllis and all the family.

“ My mother, Helen Hughes, tells the story over and over again, now that she is 98, of when visiting St. Louis as a new bride to Vernon. She would comb Terry's hair prior to going to first grade. She could hardly get the comb through his hair, it was so thick. How time changes things! I'll miss my Uncle Terry. He was a great guy and someone I looked up to with pride. Mike Hughes
