

Daniel P. Troiani

April 19, 1955 - February 7, 2024

Daniel P. Troiani, age 68, husband of Alyce Troiani, of Phoenixville, PA, passed away on Wednesday, February 7, 2024 in the Phoenixville Hospital. Born in Phoenixville, he was a son of the late Peter and Josephine (Olszyk) Troiani.

Mr. Troiani was a 1973 graduate of Phoenixville High School. He received his Bachelor's degree in Criminal Justice from West Chester University, and he retired as a Pre-sentence Investigator for the Montgomery County Parole and Probation Office.

Ever since childhood, Mr. Troiani had a passion for music. He was a talented and accomplished guitarist and song writer. He was in several bands, including Patchwork and The Urge, and put out an album in the past. He was a diehard Philadelphia sports fan and he enjoyed playing fantasy football.

In addition to his wife of 41 years, Mr. Troiani is survived by two children, Lahna, wife of Mark Holst and Dante Troiani; three grandchildren, Salvatore, Lorenzo, and Carlino; one sister, Diane Dellapenna; and two nephews and one niece, Brian and Craig McCreary and Janine Fellin. He was preceded in death by one sister, Dorothy McCreary.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville, PA. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

“ My heartfelt sympathies to Dan's family and friends. For Dan and me in high school, it was all about the music. He was a kind and gentle soul, and an exceptionally talented guitarist. The world is a little less musical today.
