“ My condolences to the family, friends and loved ones of dear "Danielle" It seems as if our loved ones are with us for such a short period of time. We long for the promises that God's word the Bible makes, "the meek shall inherit the earth and reside forever upon it."- Psalm 37:29. May you find comfort at this time as you draw close to the "God of all comfort" who tells us that if we draw close to Him, He will draw close to us- Psalm 55:22. It is my hopes that these words may prove to encourage you at this time. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown Neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com

“ Amy, My wife and I experienced the loss of a child at birth. Although that was a sad time for us it doesn't compare in any way with losing a child that you have seen grow up to be such a beautiful young woman who by all accounts was a wonderful person. I am so sorry for your loss and as I said to your parents I pray that you will find the strength and peace that you need to deal with your sorrow. May your happy memories of Danielle bring smiles to your face and wipe away your tears. Most sincerely, Tim

“ Ed & Anita, I just this hour learned of your tragic loss. From our conversations over the years I know how intensely you loved Danielle. I can't begin to imagine the pain that you have experienced and the sorrow that you now carry with you. I wish there was something that I could say that would ease your pain just one little bit. Perhaps you can find some comfort in the knowledge that others would like to lighten your burden and are willing to take some of the sorrow that you are carrying and try to carry it for you. Ed and Anita please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers that you will find the strength and peace that you need to deal with your sorrow, Most sincerely, Tim
