“ *It's October in Lake Harmony, PA. A terrible snowstorm hit the Region 8 WTSD tournament. My daughter Clare and I were stranded as we were not staying at the venue hotel. David gave up his room so that we would be safe for the night. He will be greatly missed. May God wrap him and his family in love. Edie Shean-

I am so sorry for your loss. I knew David many years ago from Kimberton and Boy Scouts Troop 49. David caught the bouquet at my wedding back in 1983. I can't think of a time when I didn't see him smiling. Again, I am sorry.

“ I Am very sorry for the loss of your son, brother, and uncle. I remember David from my many visits to your home when Jamie and I were friends in elementary school. Often through the years, especially when i have driven past East Pikeland, I have wondered about the family. Please accept my condolences and know you will all be in my prayers during the next few days.

“ We who knew and loved David have always known that he was special in so many ways. He never failed to look for ways to be the best friend to others that he could possibly be. His big heart and broad smile made Freedom House a much nicer place. Beautiful memories of David will long live in the hearts of us all. Many can say that it was a gift from God when David entered our lives. He was a man of exceptional goodness and kindness. He enriched our lives in a way that will be impossible to forget. We extend our deepest condolences to David's family along with our thanks to you for allowing David to also be a part of our Freedom House family for a much-too-short span of years.

“ My greatest Dave memory.
We must have been 7 or 8 years old. We both would spend our summers at "playground" at East Pikeland elementary. Daytime fun out at our school, doing crafts and just plain goofin around.
One particular day was "pet day". I never saw Dave laugh so hard as when he saw the kids faces while he walked across the parking lot with this monster Great Dane. It was classic Dave at his best.

“ To Nancy and the entire family of David,

In our interactions with David at Grace Lutheran Church, we have always found David to be warm, sincere and loving. He has always been gentle with a heart of Gold. His hugs and his willingness to help out will be missed by many. We are shocked to hear of David's passing as only last Sunday he was asking for our assistance to repair several chairs for him. Our plan was to call you and coordinate the fix. I am proud to have gotten to know David and glad to have played an instrumental part in getting him the services he needed in his home. God's blessings to you as you mourn the loss of David.
