“ Our family has lost a good friend, great neighbor and my (Ron) mentor. I've known Dave since I was a little boy in Harmonyville. Our fathers were good buddies. We have many memories of the fun trips taken with Dave and Mabel over the years - Virginia Tech, the New England states, Florida, the hunting camp in the mountains and many other places. They made us feel like family. Dave was "Pop Pop Strock" to our kids. Will miss you buddy. Our sympathy goes out to the Strock Family - remember the good times and the love he had for you, his family. Ron & Fay Zook

“ A giant of a man has left us. I lived down the road in Warwick from Dave and the kids. He was a GOOD example of what a father should be. My mom Grace Mauger's farm property was right against theirs. I remember playing football and baseball with him and Dave Jr, and Donnie. My deepest sympathies to all the families. Your dad/grandfather, etc. was a man to be admired and proud of. Art Mauger,Phoenixville.
