

Mr. Dean Cary Hoffman

June 28, 1964 - April 20, 2021

Dean Cary Hoffman, 56, of Reading, PA, passed away on April 20, 2021. Dean worked as a bus driver for Capital Trailways and Bieber Tourways for most of his life. He had a big heart and cared about many people in his life. He loved Christmas and decorating his home to look like Christmas Village.

He is survived by his two daughters; Caitlyn Corona, 29, and Deanna Weible, 25, and his eight grandchildren; six boys and two girls whom he loved to spoil. He is also survived by four brothers and one sister. Dean will be remembered for his love of life and his family.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ Dean I met you from Kim ! You used to write me encouraging me to stay strong when i was in pain even thou You were fighting your own battle! I admired you!!!! RIP my friend!

Judith Bechtold - June 28, 2021 at 12:03 PM

BG

“ Dean, I will always remember your phone calls and keeping in touch with us. You were always thinking of everyone and loved listening to your voice. You had a heart of gold and we will miss you. Rest in piece until we meet again.

Bud and Barbara Griffith - May 10, 2021 at 09:27 AM

VH

“ Dean, I will always remember you smiling and being your happy go lucky self. I loved listening to your phone greeting, it always brought a smile to my face. Even when times were tough, you still put up your Christmas trees & decorations and the Christmas spirit surrounded you. May you rest in peace & join Mother & Dad, Carolyn, Nancy, and everyone else who went before you & live Eternal Life in the Light of the Lord.

Valerie Hoffman - May 09, 2021 at 10:23 PM