“ Diane Reed was the bravest person I knew and know. Her beauty, smile and courage will not be forgotten. She could lift my spirits up when she was riddled with cancer. Her selfless spirit will be remembered. She sold me my darling Herbert, a Maltese, when I was going through a divorce and he became the love of my life. Herbert and i will be eterally grateful to Diane whose love and kindess we will cherish forever. Carole Mallory

“ Finding this out really broke my heart. Diane was such a sweet lady. I remember when she first got diagnosed with lung cancer a few years back that I got to pray with her. I would go in every day to get my crickets and ask her how she was doing. She really did fight with all she had! Cancer absolutely sucks and because of that we lost such a wonderful woman. My Thoughts and prayers are with all that are hurting with this loss. My heart felt condolences to the Reed family. Tommy, can't wait to give you a hug bro. Love you
