July 13, 1944- March 17th, 2022

Diane Jay Curley Valenti, of Valley Forge, PA, passed away on March 17th with family by her side.

Diane Jay Curley Valenti was born on July 13th 1944, in Harvard Massachusetts, to Joseph William Curley and Rosemond Leadbetter Curley. Diane graduated from Bromfield High, class of 1962. She started working at Filenes department store in Boston, while attending school to become a buyer. Shortly after, she made a big move to Pennsylvania to open the department store Gimbals in Philadelphia. Pennsylvania is where she met and married the love of her life, Rocco Valenti. She was dedicated to building a family and their forever home in Valley Forge. For over 20 years Diane worked for Boars Head meat company as a sales representative. She loved traveling to the different stores, meeting people and making friends, and most importantly, merchandising the stores to wonderfully represent the company. In the last few years of her life, Diane was able to slow down to spend time with her grandkids, including the furry four-legged ones. She also enjoyed spending time as a volunteer at Habitat for Humanity.

Diane will always be remembered for her compassionate, affectionate, and jovial personality. She was the most hospitable hostess and welcomed anyone into her home. She loved working outside on her beautiful yard for her family and friends to enjoy.

She leaves behind her children Jason and his wife Johanna, Christopher and his wife Jaclyn, and Victoria and her partner Vanessa. Her stepson Steven and wife Michelle along with Rocco Jr's lifelong love Eileen. Her four siblings Daniel Joseph Curley of McMinnville OR, Kerry L Curley of Harvard Ma, Alice Ellingwood and her husband Stephen of Lancaster Ma, Ann Smith, and her husband Jonathan of Lancaster Ma. Her 5 grandchildren Rocco, Oz, Violet, Alex and Leo along with many nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by her husband Rocco, her stepson Rocco JR and her nephew Tyler Curley.

“ My girl Lady Di,! I'd like you immediately when I met you 40 years ago. My first event with your family was the twins baptism. I was with Rocco senior's wonderful son Ricco Jr which I never called in my entire life. I was accepted into the family immediately I mean we'll be my family forever. Lady Di, You And John Denver are singing this song for you!!

Picture it as Sophia would say on the Golden Girls. Atlantic City circa 1980 - in walks the lovely Lady Di, tall, long dark hair piled on top in a knot, fabulous clothes and bling bling and Rick in a top hat and suit - love at first site. We were a threesome - Rick and Diane, Steve Arena and Marti, John Arena and me for so many years. How we loved to go out and have fun with so many laughs mostly caused by Rick doing something out of control. Thursday nite was a different story - Diane, Rick, the kids, John Cassese and myself cooking, drinking loads of wine and then watching Dynasty and a huge hangover the next morning when we had to get up and go to work - it was worth every headache. Diane, our 45 year friendship has been a blessing and I will miss you soooooo very much. You are now on a different journey and when you see Rick, John C, John A, Steve & Marti and finally Jack give them kisses for me. You were the best!!!

Love Lela
