“ Dolores J. Bliss - Lutz to those of us who knew her well, from childhood, we shared most of the days at the farm on Hunsberger Rd - Bertie and John played a big part of our lives and if my Mom was away - would walk to Bertie and she would comb my hair .. the family of boys - Sonny and Ed would come and drive the tractor for my Dad - they were special friends to my brother Ray - our lives were tangled together - we counted on each other for diff reasons - along with neighbor Linda Rakay, Lutz, and me - we would dress the cats in doll clothes and push them in doll buggy - and the swing in back yard attached to the apple tree - many photo's of our childhood play - and now with the passing of time and as we depart life, one by one, it brings to memory - of what was important to give children the nurture and love from our little community down the end of S. Main Street Spring City - asking the dear Lord above to give comfort and peace to the family and with love from your friends - June, Phillip and Janie Hunsberger

“ Lutz and I spent many hours reminiscing about our childhood. We would also talk about recipes. She was an exceptionally great mother to be able to take care of guy the way she did. She often called me on the phone
