“ Please accept my sincere condolences for this great loss to the McCarron family. I only knew Dolores for a short part of her life, but could tell she was so special by the respect she received from all who knew her. Thank you for letting me be part of the services it's a great honor for me, and if there is anything I can do to help please just ask.

With great regret for your loss,
SMITTY

“ Our dear Kenny, It's 8:30 pm on Monday night and we just this moment found out about your mother's passing. It's no secret how much your friendship means to us and how much you are missed now that we've left Sanatoga. Our thoughts and prayers are with you, your father, and your brother. Please tell us if you need anything at all. You'll always be very special to us. Much love.

“ Please except my deepest simpathy for the lost of your wife and mother Dolores. She and my mother Ginger Doperak worked with each other for many years in fashion Bug and then at Kunda Sign Co. They were friends for a long time and Dolores was always happy and smiling. My mom passed in Nov,07. Just try and remember all the good times you've shared together, and remember she'll always be there in your heart. Love Cheryl
