“ It brought a smile to my face every Thursday morning when he took a wagon out of his car filled with goodies for the food pantry recipients . Even though he could barely walk he graciously refused help. A kind humble man who put others before himself. Finally he has entered his eternal home.

“ Don will be missed by his church family. My mom and I were part of his 100th birthday celebration with Elvis in attendance. We were invited to his 90th with a DJ in attendance that year. Again it will not be the same with him gone but he is not using a walker or wheelchair now he is doing all the things I likes to do. I remember his stories of going to Branson, MO and the Rose Parade in California.
