

Donna J. Bagatti

September 19, 1955 - August 5, 2020

Donna Jean (Crouthamel) Bagatti, age 64, wife of Anthony Bagatti, of Royersford, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on Wednesday, August 5, 2020, surrounded by her family. Born on September 19, 1955 in Doylestown, she was the middle daughter of Chester Crouthamel and the late Doris (Hangey) Crouthamel.

A graduate of Norristown High School, Donna worked as an accounting assistant for Combustion Engineering, where she met her life partner. Donna left the workforce temporarily while she and Anthony grew their family before beginning a career in advertising sales. She spent many years as an advertising consultant for the Penny Pincher Magazine in Pottstown. However, Donna aspired to contribute to her local community a high quality and in-color product that provided not only local small businesses advertisement and marketing, but also engagement and connection with community members through local stories of inspiration and miscellaneous puzzles and games. "Locally Yours," a publication on which she worked tirelessly for several years, was her crowning achievement and something for which she and her family were very proud.

Donna was a longtime participant in a women's bowling league at Limerick Bowl. She was an avid reader and collector of books, and in her younger years even ran a local library out of her father's garage! She was deeply invested in her children's activities, most notably having served for a time on the Spring City Swim Team board as Treasurer and then President while her children were members of the team. Donna absolutely cherished all time spent with her family. She was loyal and jovial, and relished in gathering with her loved ones to discuss politics, sports, and anything else worthy of banter!

In addition to her husband and father, Donna is survived by her children: Dino, husband of Marissa Bagatti, of Pittsburgh, Jaimie, wife of Sean Indiveri, of Royersford and Tim Bagatti, of Pittsburgh; five grandchildren: Savino and Isabel Bagatti and Trey, Jace and Asher Indiveri; and two sisters: Debra, wife of Bud Gomery, of Aurora, CO and Robin, wife of Lou Fiorentino, of Limerick, as well as several wonderful nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in Donna's name to The Michael J. Fox Foundation's Parkinson's Disease Research Fund.

Arrangements are being handled by the Cattermole - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Royersford. Condolences may be offered online at www.RoyersfordFuneralHome.com.

Due to current regulations and CDC guidelines, social distancing and capacity limitation must be followed. Please be considerate of others; a mask is required for entry into the funeral home.

“ Your mother and I were best childhood friends. We spent our childhood playing kickball, riding bikes, playing kick the can, ping pong, many games of cards, and many overnight sleep overs. It was the best of times. Donna was smart, and funny, and we had great fun. God bless your family. So wonderful to see that she had so much love around her.

“ *Dear Tony and family,
I remember what must have been the first time I met Donna, at the Volt 1984 Christmas Party. She was so warm and sweet, one of the few people I ever danced with at anything like that. I am very sorry for your sudden loss and wish you feel warmed by the memories of your long precious times with each other in the family you made together.*

“ *My sincere condolences to Donna's family. I worked with Donna on the union side and found her to be a good friend and advocate for her colleagues at the Mercury in her role as an officer of the Newspaper Guild in Pottstown. She added a measured sense of responsibility and deep compassion to her various encounters, which she coupled with a wonderful sense of humor. I wish you peaceful memories of Donna. With deepest sympathy,

“ Dear Tony, Dino, Jaime, Tim and family, I had the pleasure of working with Donna at the Penny Pincher for many years. She was helpful supportive and kind. When she would cover my territory on vacations she always up sell new advertisers into color etc... a team player. So giving!!! We spoke about our kids and how proud we were. Before Thanksgiving some of the Penny Pincher alumni met up for dinner including Donna. How we enjoyed reminiscing and catching up. My heart is saddened by this loss. Sending deepest sympathies and may comforting memories help console now and in the future. Rest In Peace my friend

“ I can't believe this sad new. I am so sorry about your loss. Donna was a great person and she was just so pleasant to work for. Locally Yours Magazine was her pride and joy and I know how sad she was to give it up, and so was I... she told me all about her children and grandchildren and I loved listening to her stories for hours. I wish you all the strength in this difficult time. ❤️
