“ Donna and I met at Philadelphia Gear Corporation. She introduced herself as a Rowan, and explained how close we were related. Donna always had a smile to share. My grandparents were Dorothy and John H. Rowan. I thought of Donna last week, and came to learn yesterday that she had passed.

“ I enjoyed playing cards with Donna and teasing her about the ring I would give her someday. My condolences to her family, especially Cindy, who I often enjoyed playing cards with as well. May God's love be with you during this tough time.

“ Cyndy, Gina and I were both so shocked to hear of the passing of your mother. I feel very lucky and consider myself a better person for having had the opportunity to meet and get to know your mother. Her friendly smile and warm wave for everyone she knew made all of us feel at home, regardless of what venue we'd see you two at. Once i got to know your Mother a little more, I was taken aback and pleasantly surprised at her dry and witty sense of humor. That's something we both had in common and will be greatly missed.
