“ Oh Dave..We are so sorry for this great loss. We will miss Donna. But no more pain. She was a dear and special woman that was a gift of joy in our lives. She knew the value of a day and honored this gift of life, She was a great healer of our waters and of course abused, neglected and deeply wounded animals. To know her was and is our great blessing. Now we pray for your strength and healing. Until we meet again

“ Our heartfelt condolences are sent to Dave and the family members. Donna will always have a piece of our heart. She was a wonderful, caring, loving woman who endured too much pain but kept a stiff upper lip thru it all. For a woman who battled cancer for years she always had a smile, laugh and a kind word to say. Her laughter could fill a room. Our love for her is more than words can say. She was a hero to many. May God hold her in the palm of his hand and bring her a lifetime of love, peace, and forever pain free in His world. May her soul forever live on.
