Donna, you have been my longest friend. We met when I was 5 and you were 6. We spent lots of time babysitting our siblings together while we tried to play hopscotch and jump rope. We played paper dolls until we had no paper tabs left to dress them. We skated down the hill on Carson Street whenever we could find our skate keys. Seventy one years keeping in touch. I think Heaven is a wonderful destination, and I will plan to see you there. I wish your family wonderful memories which they can embrace once the sorrow lessens. Love you, my dear friend. Oh, and you taught me to eat a peach. I could not get past the fuzz until you told me how delicious they were. 😊❤️
