“Doris was an absolute lovely lady. I am one of the therapists at Spring Mill Senior Living and have known Doris for a few years now. I always loved talking with her at the fountain just outside of her room when I would see her in the morning as I was walking my patients. Such a wonderful woman! She always had a kind word to say. I used to always tell her that she was always wonderfully dressed ... in beautiful sweaters, jewelry, and her hair and makeup done. And she loved having the children in her family come sing. And I always loved hearing them singing by the fountain. I miss her terribly. May God be with all of you at this time.
