“ Dear JoAnn and Family,

Having been out of town for several weeks we were saddened to just read of Doug's passing in the Mercury. It just seems like yesterday our children were starting kindergarten together. Doug was such a nice guy and a great father. We fondly remember socializing as neighbors on Fulmer Road. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ I knew Doug ever since we were in Boy Scouts together and grew to admire him as a fine and honest businessman in adulthood. All who knew him must feel a special sense of loss that such a fine man has left us but I know that the example he set will live long after him. 1 Thes. 4:14.
