“ Uncle Earl, my fondest memories of time with you were when I was still a young kid and our family would come over to your house and visit you and Aunt Irene and have dinner. We would get to play with Earl and Cathy and we would all laugh and have a good time. They were days I really enjoyed. God bless you Uncle Earl.

“ It was such an honor to see all the police officers and navy personel at the grave for Earl's funeral service. He was a great man. Tough at times but honorable. He was not affraid to die, but only affraid to leave those he loved behind. Rejoice in knowing that he is in a better place.
