“ My name is Bridget and I am a former student (many years ago) of Our Mother of Sorrows school in Bridgeport. For many years, my best friend was Harry Ferenchak! I think and pray for him often. While praying in adoration last friday, I could not help but think that Harry was smiling as he greeted his mother. He loved her so. God bless all of the Ferenchak family; your mom, grandmom, aunt, and/or friend was a wonderful woman.

My husband and I met this sweet, pretty lady in St. Helena's at 5 o'clock Mass, always sitting in front of us. You couldn't help but notice she and her very loving daughter, Janet, being so kind to her Mother at Mass. Mrs. Ferenchat was always beautifully dressed and greeted us, along with Janet, when we came into Church. They both were devoted to the Mass and I enjoyed watching their loving interaction in Mass and now Mrs. Fernchak is with God, after being so ill, and wishing Janet peace of God with this loss.

I so enjoyed meeting Edith this year. We had some lovely conversations through which her goodness and sweet, loving personality shone. How wonderful that she has gone to Glory! However, for all of those left behind - Janet, please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family at this time. Sisterly in Christ, Helen DeLeonard
