“ I attended the funeral of Edward W. Barron this week in Phoenixville, Pa. I was not happy for the occasion, but grateful for the opportunity to spend some quality time with Aunt Ethel and her family. Uncle Ed was a man of rare human qualities. The greatness of a person is not measured by his accomplishments but by the legacies they leave behind. That is truly apparent in the generations of children and grandchildren nurtured by the union of Ed & Ethel. I have fond memories of the many family picnics on Manavon Street. I will never forget Maryann and Tom's wedding, when Uncle Ed surprisingly showed up to give away one of his daughters, only a week after having by pass surgery. We were privileged to have been invited to the surprise 60th wedding anniversary at the home of Maryann and Tom Mirabile. We attended Justin's wedding reception in Kimberton, spring of 2009. We did not know then, that it would be the last time we would see Aunt Ethel and Uncle Ed together as a couple. We took a photo of them at the reception, that we will cherish forever. We will always remember the opportunity to share in the celebration of his life!
