Edward L. Graeber, age 78, beloved husband of Mary Lou (Davis) Graeber, passed away peacefully Friday, December 17, 2021 at his home.

“ Mary Lou, Dana, Danelle, and family. I am so sorry to hear about Ed's passing. I know how much you all loved him. Please keep your faith that he will always be near you. I have fond memories of Ed and all of you. I had hoped to attend the graveside service but sadly could not make it. I have often thought of trying to stop to see Ed and all of you again, and now I am sorry that I never got there. If there is anything I can do to make you feel even a tiny bit better, please let me know. You have our thoughts and prayers.
Love,

“ Our thoughts and prayers go out to the Graeber family on your loss of Ed.

I Have many great memories of growing up across the street from the Graeber family. Ed was the envy of the neighborhood gang when he got his infamous 1940 Chev in high school. I have been wracking my brain trying to remember the name he gave her, unfortunately too many years have slipped by and can't.

Sadly a medical appointment precludes my wife and I from attending the graveside services. Please accept our condolences.
