“ Mrs. Synski,
Please forgive my tardiness in passing along my condolences. I have just caught up on my newspaper reading.
I am so sorry to learn of Ed's death.
My name is Tim Seiders. Like Ed, my father, Herb Seiders was employed at Tactair. I worked at Tactair during summer breaks while I was in college (1972-76).
I was just a college kid. Ed always treated me well as well as the others I saw him interact with. I'm sure there were many times when he found or created work that served to keep me employed.
Although I too live in Worcester I think I only ran into Ed once or twice during the twenty years I have lived here.
I hope that you will find the comfort you need to deal with your loss.
Most sincerely,
Tim Seiders
