“ I would like to express my sincere condolences from the Riley family on Mr. MacDades passing. The MacDade family will always be one of the "neighbors" and the reasons for such a great childhood experience. Our thoughts and prayers go out to you all.

“ Dear Jane and family: It saddened me to hear the news about Ed. Can you believe we have lived all these years after our first angioplasty. Jane, made me recall all the good times we had when we were all young. Please accept my most profound sympathy. Love. Fran
