

Eileen Creelman Amoroso

October 23, 1947 - September 11, 2024

Eileen Creelman Amoroso, age 76, of Phoenixville, Pennsylvania, passed away on Wednesday, September 11, 2024 in the Phoenixville Hospital. Born in Philadelphia, she was the daughter of Lillian (Weaver) and Edward Creelman Sr.

Eileen was a graduate of Mastbaum High School and attended Wharton School of Business. Eileen was a talented and beautiful woman who put all of her energy into everything she was passionate about- cooking, creating a beautiful home, traveling and learning. She created her own community magazine -Connections- which highlighted all of those interests while creating strong ties with the community. Eileen enjoyed a long career as an advertising executive, entrepreneur, and most recently as a consultant for Commonwealth Oral of Lansdale.

Eileen was a loving & dedicated mother to her daughter Jenna Amoroso. She is also survived by her brother Eddie Creelman & his wife Rose, her Companion Marvin "Mel" Knauer, several nieces, nephews, and cousins, and her sister Barbara Eriskson. She was preceded in death by her two siblings Joyce Nolan, and Diane Creelman.

Eileen's family will celebrate her life in a private service to be held at a later date.

If desired, in lieu of flowers her family suggests donations to your favorite charity in her name. Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc. Condolences may be offered online at www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

Tribute Wall

JM

“ Juliana Maffei lit a candle in memory of Eileen Creelman Amoroso

---

Juliana Maffei - September 17, 2024 at 05:00 PM