“ Although I neve met Ms. Keyser in person, I felt like I knew her through the stories her beautiful daughter Mary would tell. Like Mary, her mother was a collector of angels. When the time came to move her mother to a long-term care facility, Mary blessed me with one of her Mom's precious angels. This angel graced the widow garden in my office area where I registered patients as they began their recovery journey.. li believe this angel was filled with the beautiful ligiht of both Mary and her mother and helped our patients take that first difficult step as they began a new chapter in their lives. So, on behlf of myself and countless others that never even met Ms. Keyser, we wish youu Godspeed as you transition to the other side of the veil and offer comfort to Mary and her family.
