“ Eric and Sarah,

I am so sorry for your loss. Please know that the entire Holy Family School community is keeping all of you in our prayers. Many of our current staff, students, and parents remember Lizanne not just from her visits to school, but also from the Big Orange Run, where her smile and positive attitude was infectious. Those who did not actually know her had no idea she was suffering. She bore her pain with a grace that was amazing to behold. We are privileged to have known her and are grateful that you both shared Lizanne with us while Sarah was in school here. I know she rests with God and is smiling down on both of you.

“ It is with an extremely heavy heart to hear of the passing of Lizanne. I worked with Liz for many years at ifm and was always in awe of her graceful presence. She was the embodiment of class, poise and beauty. She treated everyone with dignity and a smile, and you always felt that you were one of her best friends. She had a huge love for all of her family, especially Eric and Sarah, and all of her friends. The world lost one of the truly good ones. To the Dathe and Jennings family, please accept my deepest sympathy. Rest in peace Lizanne, you will be missed.

“ How many exceptionnal persons can we meet in a life time?
The kind of person who's kindness and honesty touches us straight into the heart and makes life beautiful.
Lizanne is an exemple of kindness and courage for many people. I was so lucky and blessed I known Lizanne.
The world would be a better place with more people like Lizanne.

Combien de personnes d'exception avons nous rencontré au cours de notre vie.

Le genre de personnes qui par sa gentillesse et son honnèteté nous touchent droit au coeur et embellit nos vies.

Lizanne est un exemple de bonté et de courage pour tant de gens. J'ai été chanceux et honoré de la connaitre.

Avec plus de personne telles que Lizanne le monde serait meilleur.

Codoleances to Lizanne's family and friends.

“Lizanne's chill demeanor is what I remember the most - it's why we became friends as well. When we were at Conestoga, Lizanne and I would find each other outside after lunch, sitting on the wall or in the bus circle. She was so funny! Nothing seemed to phase her but I remember one day when she was really mad about a test she had to take in History. It was a sight to see because it was so out of character! But she got over it quickly and was right back to "just whatever." One night at a party there at the house we were in the family's kitchen lamenting the unfortunate consequences of being the only girl in a family of brothers. I expressed my feelings about my 3 and she just laughed at that! "Meg, are you serious? How do you think I feel?" She was so cute and always nice. I loved her dearly and we had many great conversations, including at our 20th reunion. I treasure that meeting and will hold her in my heart.
