

Elizabeth Garone

July 10, 1926 - June 25, 2020

Elizabeth (Bucalo) Garone, age 93, wife of the late Vincenzo Garone, of Phoenixville, PA, passed away on Thursday, June 25, 2020 in the Seasons Hospice, Phoenixville. Born on July 10, 1926 in Brooklyn, NY, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Rose (Laurino) Bucalo.

Mrs. Garone was a homemaker, and cherished the time she spent raising her children. When her boys became adults, she went on to work as a facilities supervisor for the City of New York. She had a keen interest in fashion and jewelry. She was a "foodie", enjoying all aspects of food: eating, trying new recipes, preparation, watching celebrity chefs, and inspiring one of her sons and a granddaughter to learn the art of cooking. While living at Woodbridge Place in Phoenixville, she looked forward to spending her afternoons listening to music and singing, and making new friends. Most of all, she enjoyed being a grandmother to four wonderful grandchildren.

Mrs. Garone is survived by two sons, Vincent J. Garone, husband of Susan Prouty of Phoenixville, PA and Michael T., husband of Lee Garone of Lake Oswego, OR; four grandchildren, Katherine, wife of Simone Giani, Andrew Garone, Natalie Garone, and Amelia Garone. Mrs. Garone was preceded in death by seven siblings.

“ I enjoyed knowing Elizabeth for nearly thirty-four years and always looked forward to seeing her at family gatherings. She always seemed as pleased to see me, too. Until last year, she made the three-hour trip to spend Thanksgiving Day with us here on the farm, and enjoyed having the crowd around, even though she didn't play croquet. I will miss her.
