“ Dear Aunt Betty, thank you very much for all the wonderful loving memories. Thank you most of all for the blessing you were to my mom during some difficult times. Thank you so much too for all the laughs we enjoyed. I am glad you are removed from your suffering. God bless you, Aunt Betty.

“ Dear Betty, I first met you when I was 5 years of age and you lived on Nutt Road with Frank. Little did we know at the time that our friendship would develop into a family type relationship after I had my two children, You became like a second mother to me and "Aunt Betty" to my children. No one can replace the many hours of fun and laughter we shared, especially when we went into the candle business. Those were the happy days. As for today, I am happy that you are at rest, can feel no more pain and you don't have to ask why am I still here? I chose to light the red candle for my tribute because my heart is aching when I think of myself and being selfish thinking of the next day without "Aunt Betty". But I know you are at rest now and that must be my consolation.
With much due respect and love. Pat

“ Dear Aunt Betty, Kellie and I perhaps would not be what we are today without your help! We have so much to thank you for.....your presence, your little gifts for us, and you teaching us right from wrong. Since I'm 53 years of age I've known you as "Aunt Betty" all my life. "Thank you" from the part of my heart that has loved you all these years. When you are laid to rest on Monday, that part of my heart will go with you. Rest in peace because you sure deserve to.
Love Chris

“ Dear Aunt Betty, I'm so glad you are at rest with no more pain and suffering. I told my mom that I had to thank you for all you did for me and Chris but most of all for all those cookies you used to bring down for Chris and me. And how Chris and I used to laugh at you and mom when you were making candles. We had such happy and fun times. Thank you, I love you and rest in peace. I'll not be able to walk down the back alley and not look for you all the time. Love, Kellie
