“ Dear Family of Liz:

I am so sorry to learn this morning of Liz's passing. I am a rug hooker from Ohio and admired her work, and got to see her great work when we visited Maine. Her work was inspired, and in turn she passed that inspiration along to many others of us.

I hope that you have found some peace and comfort in this last year of National Mourning. May Lis's memory be a blessing to you, her family, and to all those that she enjoyed love, life and laughter with.

*Sincerely,
Maddy Fraioli

“ I knew Betsy well and am saddened to just hear of her passing. She, myself, and a handful of others went to the same and varied schools from Grade 1 - 12. I will always have fond memories of her, and remember as a child playing in her family's large house on Kent Ave. in Laureldale. Her father was our family physician for many years. RIP.

“ I remember a wonderful young woman we called "Betsy" in Junior and Senior High School. She was a talented singer and indeed very artistic, doing oil paintings at home which were quite good. The smile in this picture of her speaks volumes to the wonderful heart she had.
