“ Psalm 28:7 The Lord is my strenght and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him. MY Aunt Elsie loved the Lord with all her heart, and she would the family to hold on to him. So keep your heart in his hand and he will pull you through. Love and heartfelt Condolences. From Your Family DeVonne Golden and Family.

“ Dear family in Christ, we wish to extend our deepest condelences on the passing of sister Elsie. She shared a beautiful spirit and she has certainly enjoyed a good life. You are blessed to have had her for such a long time. She is resting with our Lord and you will miss her, but you should be comforted in knowing you will see her again. Grace and peace be unto you and your family and may you be comforted during this time of bereavement.

“ Elsie was an example of true character. No matter what life dealt her, she faced it head-on. She had a sweet, gentle side that complemented her strong will. I am truly blessed for having the opportunity to have known her.
