In Loving Memory of Emil Koro

November 18, 1937 - October 14, 2025

Emil Koro, aged 87, of Pottstown, Pennsylvania, passed away peacefully on October 14, 2025.

Born in Jerusalem to Sami and Fahima Koro, Emil attended Bishop's School in Amman, Jordan, and graduated high school in 1956. Throughout his distinguished career, he was dedicated to education, service, and fostering international relations. As the National Director of AMIDEAST Jordan from 1967 to 1979, Emil supported many Jordanian students in pursuing higher education opportunities at American universities. He was entrusted with the responsibilities of the Royal Jordanian Palace Scholarship Program. He then worked as a Financial Analyst at the American Embassy in Amman from 1980 to 2000, earning recognition and several awards for his integrity and professionalism-including the Special Achievement Award, Sustained Superior Performance Award, and Meritorious Honor Award.

He married his beloved wife, Aniseh, in 1966; together, they shared nearly sixty years filled with love, faith, and companionship. They moved to the United States in 2006 to be with their daughters.

Emil is remembered as a caring husband and father, known for his wisdom,

“ Thank you, cousin Ghassan, for your kind words. I know my dad loved you and cared about you like his own son, and he is smiling in heaven ❤️

I am writing, with a heavy heart to extend my deepest and most sincere condolences to you and your entire family on the passing of your beloved father.

He was truly a remarkable man a person of extraordinary kindness, strength, and integrity. To me, he was more than just your father; he was a role model, an inspiration, and someone I deeply admired and loved. His warmth, wisdom, and the way he cared for others touched my life in ways I will never forget. He meant so much to me, and his absence leaves a profound void that words can hardly capture.

Please know that during this incredibly painful time, my thoughts are constantly with you and your family. I share in your sorrow, and I grieve the loss of such a great and irreplaceable person.

May the cherished memories of him bring you some comfort in the days ahead, and may you find strength in the love and legacy he leaves behind.

*With all my sympathy and affection,
Ghassan Aslan Aro*

“ When I asked AJ Wargo to share a memory with my dad when they were helping us out at one of the apartments in Pottstown:

Marlen it was a long time ago. I had been helping Robert with the properties through him and we had a conversation about things. He was different than I was used to as far as the type of people I grew up with; very open and nonjudgmental. I really liked that about him I asked him a lot of questions about where you guys were from and what brought you to the US. I remember him being a very kind and supportive person.

It was refreshing to know that there are people like that and that the persona we are shown on tv or told about foreigners and foreign places isn't always the actual case. RIP Emil 🙏🙏

“ My father, Emil, was the heart and foundation of our family — a loving, resourceful, and charismatic man whose energy and warmth could light up any room.

He always did so much for us, never still for long — creating, fixing, and giving of himself with care and purpose.

He believed deeply in education and made it his mission to ensure his daughters received the highest education possible. He guided us with patience and faith, and his belief in what we could achieve gave us the strength to reach higher.

My father’s love for travel, food, and culture shaped the way I see the world.

His passion for flavor and discovery inspired me personally — it’s because of the foodie he was that I found the courage to start my own food company, a reflection of his creativity, warmth, and generosity.

To us, he was our rock — steady, wise, and full of love.

He lived with gratitude and faith, trusting God’s plan and finding peace in His promises.

And though he is no longer beside us, his light continues to guide us — in the way we love,

in the way we persevere,

and in the way we believe in ourselves,

just as he always believed in us.

May his memory be a blessing,

his love a light that continues to guide our hearts,

and his spirit a steady presence in all we do.

Loving daughter, Marlen
