“ I first met Eric six years ago as we had both worked at Accenture. I remember looking forward to speaking with him every day as we would always have something to joke or talk about while working. Over the years Eric became a good friend, we always enjoying going out with him and his loving girlfriend Tess. I especially loved telling him about how I loved my iPhone to see his reaction because I knew he despised apple products. I will always remember eric because of the unique joy that he always had while you were around him. Eric loved life and family. My thoughts and prayers are for his family and loving girlfriend Tess.

Love,

Tim

“ I am a physician assistant in the ICU at Einstein Montgomery. I met Eric and Tess the day he presented to the ER. I want his family to know that even then, when he was sick, he was so polite and a pleasant young man. He was so strong too. His case had really touched me and ever since he was transferred from Einstein to Penn, I would call and get updates on his case. I am so sorry, Tess (I remember meeting you in the ER and seeing the love and concern on your face), and to his family that I did not meet. I see a lot of cases and many with not good outcomes but for some reason, your son had touched me in that brief moment I met him. My condolences,
