“ Dear Clay, Karen, and Jamie I am so sorry for your loss. Eva was a very special person. She always had a smile and a good word for everyone. I will always cherish the memories of the many evenings we spent playing Hossie with her, Harry and the Sweisfords. She would always yell " Oh Harry " when ever your dad took a trick away from her. I am sure there is a special place in heaven for her.
Sincerely Lin And Joyce

“ We know darned well she's not really resting. The burdens that she's carried for the past few years have now been lifted. She has her place organized already. Harry's life is now fulfilled...and the chief is back in charge. And I know right well Janie as already heard couple of dozen of those "oh Jane" here's how you do it. Love to All of You Folks John, Connie, Shannon, Sean, Kerry Brian...oh yeah...Eva...you missed a good one Annabelle Mae.

“ Clay, your mother was a wonderful person. She raised a caring and loving son who inspired us with his dedication and care of his mother in her later years. May you find peace in the thought that mother is finally at rest.

“ Dear Clay and family, I am so sorry to read of your mom's passing. Eva was always dear to Wayne and I and will be sadly missed by all. As I reflect on her life I know that there is great rejoicing at her homecoming in Heaven. Harry & Janie were there waiting to escort her into God's Throne room. All her friends & loved ones that have gone on before were next to greet her. Just know that she is once again free of pain and walking onstreets of gold with our Lord and the love of her life your dad. God Bless you all. Scheduling prevents me from being with you in person but I am with you in thoughts and prayers. Love, Liz Weidman
