

Mr. Everett A. Ashenfelder

March 14, 1960 - December 29, 2021

Everett A. Ashenfelder, 61, passed away Wednesday, December 29, 2021. A lifelong Phoenixville resident, he was born on March 14, 1960 to Weston W. Ashenfelder, Jr. and Mary Lou (Pavlicek) Ashenfelder.

Everett attended St. Ann's Catholic Church. He was a graduate of Northern Chester County Technical School. Everett worked for Giant Food Stores then drove school buses for Phoenixville Area School District. He will be remembered most for his kind and strong heart, and how making others laugh made him happiest.

He is survived by a daughter, Sabrina Ashenfelder of Aurora, CO; sister, Shirley Pettine, wife of Michael, of Phoenixville, PA, his niece and nephew; Kacey and Matthew, and his grandnieces and nephew; Erin, Alyssa, Julia, and Owen. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by a brother; Weston W. Ashenfelder III.

Funeral services will be held privately at the convenience of the family.

Condolences may be made by visiting www.PhoenixvilleFuneralHome.com.

Arrangements are being handled by the Campbell - Ennis - Klotzbach Funeral Home, Inc., Phoenixville, Pennsylvania. In lieu of flowers memorial donations may be made in Everett's name to National Consumer Voice for Quality Long-Term Care, 1025 Connecticut Avenue, NW, Suite 1000, Washington, DC 20036, www.TheConsumerVoice.org

“ My dad.. best dad in the world. We unfortunately weren't granted the most time together when I was a kid, but we definitely made the most of the times that we did have. I only wish I'd had just a little more time. I love you, dad. It takes people like you to make a person like me.
