

Mrs. Fayanne White

June 29, 1937 - April 25, 2022

Fayanne (White) White, wife of Richard White, of Spring City, went to be with the Lord on Monday, April 25, 2022 at Phoenixville Hospital surrounded by her family.

She was born June 29, 1937 to Lester and Helena White of Honey Brook, PA. She graduated in 1955 from Honey Brook High School. Following graduation she attended Bryland Beautician Hairdressing School in Reading, PA. On June 22, 1957 she was married to Richard White, with whom she would have shared 65 years of marriage in June 2022.

She was employed by Sparky and Joanne Beauty Shop in Pottstown, PA. Later she operated her own beauty shop in Spring City. She enjoyed bowling and spending time at the beach in Bethany Beach Delaware.

In addition to her husband Richard, she is survived by two daughters; Denise Moore (John), of Phoenixville, Lori Badman, of Birdsboro, granddaughter; Nicole Moore, of Phoenixville, grandson; Austin Moore, of Phoenixville, her twin sister, JoAnne, of Lancaster, and her dog Mandy.

Services will be private. In lieu of flowers donation's may be made in Fayanne's name to Brandywine Valley SPCA, 1212 Phoenixville Pike, West Chester, PA 19380.

“ Dear Richard and girls so sorry to hear about Fay.
One thing I remember about her is how funny she was. Always made me laugh.
And we had one thing in common we both loved doing hair.
Remember coming to the salon and having her do our hair, it was great because our Dad use to cut our hair.
Sending our deepest sympathy
Love,Mel and Jim Mauger

“ We are so sorry to hear about Fay's passing ☐. We have so many fond memories of Fay and Dick at the campground. They are the sweetest couple and we enjoyed being their neighbors for a lot of years. She was so kind and sweet and had a great sense of humor. A beautiful lady inside and out. Hugs and prayers for Dick and family. 🥺💕🙏
