

Florence K. Lightcap

December 25, 1937 - May 17, 2020

Florence K. (Greaser) Lightcap, age 82 of Royersford, Pennsylvania, passed away at home on Sunday, May 17, 2020. Born on December 25, 1937 in Zieglerville, she was a daughter of the late Elsie (Keyser) and Harold Y. Greaser.

Married on January 10, 1959, she was the wife of the late Richard H. Lightcap, for 57 years until his death in 2016.

Florence was a 1955 graduate of the Schwenksville High School.

Before she was married, Florence worked at Harleysville Insurance Company in the fire claims department.

Soon after marrying they moved to Oklahoma as her husband served in the Army at Fort Sill until his discharge.

Living at their residence in Royersford since 1963, Florence was a devoted mother and homemaker to raise her six children until grown.

She then worked for Genuardi's Family Markets in Spring City and Royersford in the Deli Department until her retirement in 2003.

During their retirement years, she and Richard spent their winters enjoying Sarasota FL., until 2016.

Florence took great pleasure caring for her grandchildren, feeding the birds, helping her family and tending to her flower beds and maintaining her yard impeccably.

Mrs. Lightcap is survived by four daughters, Karen A. (Paul) Gehris, of Orbisonia, PA, Kimberly M. (John) Varela, of Langhorne, PA, Carol A.
