

Frank K. Wolfe

August 15, 1969 - October 7, 2014

Frank Kelso Wolfe, 45, of Royersford, died on Tuesday, October 7, 2014. He was the son of Robert and Cecilia Wolfe and the brother of Nettie Wolfe Silva, wife of Fabio Silva. Frank was a 1987 graduate of the Spring-Ford High School. He earned his BS in Art Education from Kutztown University in 2001. He formerly worked at the Spring Valley YMCA. More recently, he was working as a peer specialist at Creative Health Services in Pottstown. Frank was a member of the 2nd Baptist Church in Pottstown.

Frank would often speak of the deep gratitude he felt for his family and so many caring friends. Many knew him as the creative mind and spirit-rich soul behind vibrantly stirring paintings, drawings, sculptures, angel and peace greeting cards, poems, short stories, essays, stand-up comedy and the beloved stage performance called "Love and Bagels." He self-published several books of poems and lived to explore and expand his artistry. In addition to his parents and sister, Frank is survived by one nephew: Jamie W. Silva.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend the memorial service at the Cattermole-Klotzbach Funeral Home, 600 Washington Street, Royersford, PA on Tuesday morning, October 14, 2014 at 10:30AM. Burial will be held privately on Monday in the Fernwood Cemetery, Royersford. Friends will be received from 9:30-10:30AM Tuesday morning at the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made in Frank's name to the Royersford Art Department, 17 North 4th Avenue, Royersford, PA 19468. The video tribute may be viewed and condolences may be made by visiting www.RoyersfordFuneralHome.com.

“ On Thurs., Nov. 13, The Montgomery County Community College Writers' Club will sponsor the Frank Wolfe Memorial Coffeehouse, from 7:00 - 10:00 p.m., at the Barnes & Noble Bookstore on Central Campus. All are invited. We will also publish a tribute article to Frank in our next newsletter, sent to hundreds of subscribers, many of whom knew him as a friend, officer, and performer since the early nineties. We are deeply saddened by his passing. But his gentle, caring spirit will live on for us in our hearts, in his poetry, and in our memories of his many performances at our coffeehouses over the years.

“ Frank was a talented, beautiful spirit who touched many lives. I knew him from his work at Creative Health, and when I had to miss work for several weeks due to an emergency he rallied the folks and sent a beautiful Angel card signed by everyone - I still have it, and it has inspired other similar efforts by the groups. I know that Frank was also beloved at Steel city for his amazing open mike performances. He was a remarkable man that we lost far too soon, and he touched many, many people.

“ Sorry to hear of Frank's passing. I went to school with Frank and he was such a wonderful person to know. I lost track of him after we all graduated but ran into him at the after school program for the YMCA at Royersford Elementary School where my youngest daughter was going. Frank will be dearly missed.

“ Dear Cecilia, Bob and Nettie and family, the few times I met Frank he was kind, personable and genuinely interested in me and the conversation. I enjoyed walking by and seeing his art through his studio window. We will truly miss Frank and all that he brought to this world. My prayers are with you for love and peace.

Dear Cecilia, Bob, Nettie and other devoted family and friends, I will always remember Frank's soft gentle voice as we spoke over the phone and he regaled me with some of his poems. He was so rightfully proud of his standup performances. He also told me he read books aloud to his folks, a wonderful idea, for this talented man who is now at peace. - Ruth Deming, Willow Grove, PA
