

Frantz Lundi

October 15, 1952 - May 5, 2022

It is with extreme sadness we announce the passing of a beloved husband, father, uncle, family member and friend on Thursday, May 5th. His passing leaves an irreplaceable void and he will be dearly missed by all.

Frantz (Fanfan) Lundi was born on October 15, 1952 in Port-au Prince, Haiti. The eldest son of the late Marie-Therese Cadet and Antoine Lundi. Upon seeing him at birth, his late grand-mother Altinette Charly, after one look at him, stated " this little one will be the smartest of them all " the statement was a precursor to his path. Excelling in school, known as a math whiz, finishing top of his class from elementary to lycee Jean Pramas (college) in Haiti with a desire to become an engineer.

Wanting a better life and the opportunity to further pursue his education. Frantz seized the chance to immigrate to the United States with the assistance of his sister, Gisele Lundy and beloved godmother and cousin, the late Marie-Carmelle Alex Brothers in 1979. He then attended Drexel University studying Electrical Engineering. Life as we know it brings us unforeseen challenges as he was unable to complete his degree. Frantz did not let this deter him; instead it became a pivotal moment of his life in which he applied the learnings to help others.

Frantz Lundi was an exemplary and dedicated employee who received numerous recognitions, and accolades from his employers having worked at the Valley Forge Military Academy, Freedom Foundation, Wyatt and lastly with Stryker Pharmaceuticals where he retired.

Family and friends will tell you, Frantz was a multifaceted maverick and well versed on many subjects. These conversations left you the wiser and with insightful clarity. As a spiritual individual at his core you felt his kindness, his love, his patience and his generosity true to his faith in God.

A soccer aficionado you will find him on the weekend or on his time off watching his favorite game. This was only equal to his passion for music. Neither could surpass the love he had for his family which was his greatest joy and accomplishment.

Frantz is survived by his loving wife, Ginette and his 4 children, Yousef, Maishania, Gion and Karl and grandson Micah. His siblings Gisele, Mario (wife Violette), and Roland. His nieces and nephews: Germilee Jean, James Jean, Wood Lundi, Gant Lundi, Clifford Reddick III (Lelani), Eric Joseph, Debbie McCants (deceased) numerous cousins, friends who were his extended family.

May he rest in peace.
