

Futian Han

November 1, 1970 - April 21, 2012

Futian Han, 41, of Phoenixville, PA, went to be with the Lord on Saturday, April 21, 2012 after a lengthy and courageous battle against cancer. He was born in Leting, Hebei province, China, in 1970, to parents Han Enhe and Liu Xueru and is the brother of Fuyu Han, 39, of Tanghai, Hebei, China. Dr. Han attended the University of Science and Technology of China, where he obtained his Bachelors of Science degree and Dalian Institute of Chemical Physics, Chinese Academy of Sciences, where he obtained his Master's degree and Ph.D. in Chemistry. He married the love of his life, Qingbai Yu, in 1999, before moving to the United States and completing his Post-doctoral studies at the University of California's Riverside and Irvine campuses. The couple relocated to Ames, Iowa, in 2003 where he worked as a scientist at Combisep and later Phoenixville, PA, in 2005 where Dr. Han held the position of Director of Bio Lab at Frontage Laboratory in Malvern. Dr. Han received several academic honors from the University of Science and Technology in China, including Excellent Prize of 1999, President Scholarship for Postgraduate Studies, One of Best Students award, Honors student, and Student Council Member. He was awarded the Yida Scholarship, the Natural Science Award in China in 1999 and the Best of Paperwork for Ph.D. in 2001. He was also a Member of the American Chemical Society and holder of U.S. Patents for his research at UC Irvine and Combisep. He will be best remembered as a loving husband and devoted father. Dr. Han is survived by his wife of 12 years, Qingbai Yu; two sons, Daniel, 11; and Eric, 8; his mother

Liu Xueru, his brother Fuyu and a large extended family and friends. A public viewing will be held on Wednesday, April 25, 2012, from 4-7 pm at the Campbell Ennis Klotzbach at Main Street and 5th in Phoenixville, PA. A memorial service will also be held on Saturday, April 28, 2012, from 10 am to 12:30 pm at Church of Holy Apostles at Remington Road and Dover Road, Wynnewood, PA. The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to American Cancer Society in memory of Dr. Han.

“ My deepest and heartfelt condolences in the loss of your dear father and husband. It seems as if our loved ones are with us for such a short period of time. We long for the promises that God's word the Bible makes, "the meek shall inherit the earth and reside forever upon it."-Psalm 37:29. May you find comfort at this time as you draw close to the "God of all comfort" who tells us that if we draw close to Him, He will draw close to us- Psalm 55:22. It is my hopes that these words may prove to encourage you at this time. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown Neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com

“ The entire Han family has been in my thoughts this week and has my deepest sympathies. I remember Dr. Han fondly as a fellow parent of 5th and 2nd graders and feel lucky to have known him.

“ I only had the opportunity to meet Dr. Han a couple of times, but the kindness and exceptional attributes that I see in both his sons are true gifts. These were clearly taught and cherished in both Dr. Han and Mrs. Han's hearts and lives. I am honored to spend time with Daniel and Eric and they have enhanced my life and for that I am truly appreciative of Dr. Han and Mrs. Han. Rest in peace Dr. Han.

“ John 5:28, 29: “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.”

“ Futian was a best friend from college. We had a memorable road trip in southern California and Las Vegas in 1999. In the last decade I always looked forward to the opportunities to speak with him over the phone because I could just feel his love for his family and life in general through both good times and more challenging times. Futian is a gentle giant. May he rest in peace.
