“ My deepest heartfelt sympathies in the loss of your dear husband and son. I too have a son about the same age. I could not imagine the pain that must be felt upon the loss of a child. It is my hopes and prayers that you will find comfort in the God of the Bible that tells us that if we draw close to Him, He will draw close to us. - 2 Corinthians 1: 3&4. The Holy Scriptures tell us that "The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it."- Psalm 37:29. Yes, we are promised that our dear loved ones lost in death shall arise to life again here on a restored paradise earth. -Acts 24:15. May we all live our lives in such a way that we will be there to greet them! It is my hopes that these words will prove to encourage and comfort you at this time. Respectfully submitted, Denise Brown neiceybrown-mail@yahoo.com

“ We have only known Gary for about 3 yrs but in that short time have formed a special friendship with him along with Trish and the kids, Tim and Diane. It is with much sadness not to see Gary when we go to leave or turn in the driveway each day but we thank God for the great memories we have. We will never forget Gary for his friendship, and especially remember his signature smile and laugh.

“ To Michelle and Michael, Words cannot express how I feel for you today. God needed another saint so he took Gary to dwell with him. May all the saints welcome him into his new eternal home. You could not have asked for a better person than Gary. What a great friend he was and I will remember his passion for his family as well. May you find the consolation of God's wonderful love and may he rest in peace!

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this extremely difficult time. Gary was such a fine man, always so kind, always so friendly, and forever so innocent. When we think of him, we can see his sweet smile, hear his terrific laugh and feel his extended hand of friendship. He was just a good and honest soul. The world is so much poorer for losing a man like this. We are heartbroken for you and we will pray day and night for Trish, little Ty and Camille, and for Gary's family. God Bless all of you.

Know that you will be in my prayers particularly over the next few days. Gary is experiencing his heavenly reward and you are experiencing a huge void in your lives. Michelle, I am a phone call away!
