“ I worked with George for three years at Eagle Cleaning Company at Cabots Super Metal. I could not find a nicer person to work with. When I asked for help he came and helped me. When he asked for help, I helped. He will be really missed.

“ Dear loving family of George, I'm sorry to read of your sad loss, and I want to extend my deepest sympathy. When tragedies happen of “time and unforeseen occurrence that befall” - (Ecclesiastes 9:11b) families, it can be helpful to know that God's not to blame; as James 1:13 shows “When under trial, let no one say: “I am being tried by God.” For with evil things God cannot be tried nor does he himself try anyone.” Acts 24:15 promise “there is going to be a resurrection.” Until this time comes, George is as if asleep; just as Jesus said of his friend Lazarus when he died. - (John 11:11-15) Jesus then raised Lazarus from that sleep of death back to life. - (John 11:34-44) Jesus also resurrected a young man, the only son of a widow - Luke 7:11-17 and a 12 year old girl - Luke 8:40-56. This shows he has the power to resurrect our loved ones in the future! Then Revelation 21:4 will be fulfilled: “And (God) will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” - Just imagine –a world with no tears of sorrow, no pain, and no death! Then the prayer for God's will to be done on earth as it is in heaven will be fully realized! - Matthew 6:9, 10 I hope that your loving memories will comfort and sustain you and that these verses might give you comfort too. Sincerely Yours,
Cindy Boyer
