“ I bowled with George for a year in the downingtown league. He was funny, great personality and just a warm genuine person. I was shocked to hear the news and deeply saddened. There should be more like him in the world, it would truly be a better place. My deepest sorrows for his family and friends.

“ I just heard about George's death from one of his former co-workers and was in shock to hear about it. I only known him for a few yrs and in those few yrs he gave great advice and was a good listener. I will always remember running into him at work when he used to be a vendor. I will miss him and he too will always hold a special place in my heart. My condolences go out to you his family and friends.

I just heard of George's passing and sorry to hear of this sad news. I first meant him on Aug. of 1998, when he started working as a vendor for Coca Cola for the store I worked for at that time. We were friends for a few years and then lost contact with each other in 2006. He was a good friend and listener and will always remember his love for his Pittsburgh Steelers or anything Pittsburgh for that matter, his love for music and his love for his family. He was a kind and gentle man and he will be greatly missed. My deepest sympathies to his family..... Heidi
