George Tadao Abe, age 96, of Schwenksville, PA, formerly of Fort Gratiot, MI, died late Sunday evening, November 6, 2011 at the home of his daughter in Schwenksville, PA. Born in Sacramento, CA, he was a son of the late Chusaku and Tsune (Takahashi) Abe. Mr. Abe attended the Sacramento Main High School. At the end of WWII, George relocated his family to Michigan, having been recruited to work there in the insurance industry. However, he soon found other work in the automobile industry, finally retiring to Port Huron, Michigan until the last months of his life, which he spent at his daughter's home in Pennsylvania. In addition to his wife of 72 years, Mr. Abe is survived by six children; Allen Abe, of Florida, Genevieve, wife of Farris Fox, of North Carolina, Constance (Albert) Parsons, of Missouri, Karen, wife of Rusell "Joe" Hamel, of Schwenksville, Pennsylvania, Margaret Abe Carley, of Michigan, Louis G. Abe of Yuba City, California, seven grandchildren, three great-grandchildren, and several nieces and nephews. Mr. Abe was pre-deceased by one brother; Frank Abe, one sister; Taneo Suzuki. “ I never knew Mr. Abe, but I have seen the fruit of his and Mrs. Abe's family-nurturing abilities in the life of their daughter, Karen, my longtime friend. I know that the love she has for her parents is in part a reflection of the love and faithfulness she and the other children have learned from them. May God bless and keep the Abe family and give them comfort in the passing of this very dear man.
