“ I was blessed by Jerry's faith. He knew Jesus. He always thanked me for playing the drums at church or asked me about my family when I saw him. He was full of joy and now he will be worshipping the King of Kings in glory! We will see you soon Jerry.

“ Thank you, Jerry, for serving Iron Works Church so well. You brightened the day of so many with your smile and love for Christ. We will miss you deeply. Can't wait until we meet again in the age to come. Some people think of meeting St. Peter at the gates to heaven. I think of meeting you as one of Heaven's greeters.

“ Jerry brought joy to so many of us! My grandsons only saw Jerry on occasion when they would visit our church but they always looked to say hello to him. This past summer we stopped at Center City Pizza after a little league game. Jerry came in and we invited him to join us. We had so much fun! The boys loved telling him about the game. Jerry always had a compliment, a hug and smile for you. He blessed us all and will be deeply missed until we gather again to rejoice in our heavenly home. Lisa

“ Jerry was such a blessing in my life. We shared many WWE wrestling parties & Eagles games. Even when we drifted apart we still got together for lunch or dinner....He always had a big hug & a compliment. He never, never had a bad word to say about anyone, even if they deserved it. I always looked up Yost Road to see him strolling down to Turkey Hill with a big smile and a wave...I will miss him terribly. The world was a better place because he was in it. Beverly

“ Every single time I saw Gerry he greeted me with a hug and a compliment. He told me he wasn't always so nice, but when he asked Jesus into his heart he changed. I loved sharing meals with Gerry who enjoyed trying new things and was always appreciative. Watching the Simpsons, I loved hearing his laughter.
